

Thank you for visiting www.fvtd.com. Your privacy is very important to us. To better protect your privacy, we provide this Privacy Policy explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is used and used on this site. This Privacy Policy applies only to the Site, and covers information collected on or through or in connection with your use of the Site.

We reserve the right to modify the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy or to change, modify, alter any feature of the Site in our sole discretion at any time. Changes may be communicated to you via any one of the following methods: (1) by sending an e-mail alerting you to the revised Privacy Policy; or (2) by otherwise making the revised Privacy Policy available for your review. Any modification to this Privacy Policy will supersede the prior provisions for all activity occurring after the revised version has been made available in the manner described above. Your continued use of the Site after the revised version is made available constitutes your agreement to the revision.

What this Privacy Policy Covers

This Privacy Policy covers fvtd.com treatment of personally identifiable information that it collects when you are on the Fox Valley Tool & Die website and when you use our services. This policy also covers our treatment of any personally identifiable information that Fox Valley Tool & Die and its subsidiaries, affiliates and business partners share with us or that we may collect on a related entity's or business partner's website. This Privacy Policy does not apply to the practices of companies that Fox Valley Tool & Die does not own or control, such as companies whose website's may be posted by hyperlink on our own websites, or to people that Fox Valley Tool & Die does not employ or manage.

Information Collection

As you browse www.fvtd.com, personal information, such as your name, address, phone number or e-mail address, is not collected. FVTD.com does, however, use "cookies" to collect information about how our website is used. Information, such as the server your computer is logged onto, your browser type (for example, Netscape or Internet Explorer) and the pages you view/request are automatically collected and tracked in aggregate.

Fox Valley Tool & Die may collect information voluntarily provided to request further information or our E-NEWS, Contact Us, Event and Training Registration or other online services. Such information may include your name, e-mail address and other basic contact information necessary to provide you the services you request.

Personal Information from Children

We do not knowingly collect, disclose, or use personally identifiable information provided by a minor under the age of 13. If you learn that your child has provided personally identifiable information, please contact us and we shall remove that information from our lists.

Information Use

FVTD.com may use information you have given us to, for example, provide a service, measure guest interest in certain new products, and inform you about our products and services, or those products and services of our business partners. If you have provided your e-mail address to us or to a company we have partnered with to make their products and services available to you, we may send you e-mail offers. We may also send you e-mail offers if you have provided your e-mail address to a third party and have actively chosen or requested to receive e-mail offers from other parties. Please note that we DO NOT share your e-mail address to our business partners, or unaffiliated third parties.

Opt-Out Privacy Choice

If at any point you wish to opt-out of receiving marketing and other communications, or update, supplement or delete your own voluntarily submitted personal information that Fox Valley Tool & Die uses for the previously noted business purposes, please contact us at fvtd@fvtd.com.

Information Sharing and Disclosure

FVTD.com will not sell or rent your personally identifiable information to anyone. FVTD.com may send personally identifiable information about you to other companies or people when:

- We have your consent to share the information; or
- We need to share your information to provide the product or service you have requested; or
- We need to send the information to companies who work on behalf of Fox Valley Tool & Die to provide a product or service to you. These companies do not have any right to use the personally identifiable information we provide to them beyond what is necessary to assist us; or
- We respond to subpoenas, court orders, law enforcement other governmental requests, or legal process, or
- We need to investigate, assert or defend our legal rights.

We may also share with third-parties aggregate information regarding online visitors. Aggregate information identifies overall visitor activity, but does not provide information on any individual user.

Internet Information Security

We take reasonable precautions to ensure that any personally identifiable information you provide on this site is kept confidential and stored in a secure environment, and that only those personnel with legitimate business purposes will have access to this information. We cannot guarantee that data provided to us will not be subject to loss, alteration, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure, or destruction. It is important to be aware that all internet transmissions are subject to security breaches and errors. You should take precautions in choosing the information you send and safeguard any passwords or special types of identification you use to access this site.

International Notice

Personal information that is voluntarily submitted online, via electronic communication, or otherwise may be maintained or accessed in servers or files located in the United States under United States privacy laws, which the European Union has not deemed to provide "adequate" privacy protection. If you do not consent to having your information processed and stored in the United States under the protections afforded by United States law, please do not provide it.

Changes to Your Personal Information

We strive to ensure the accuracy of any personal information you provide to us online. If you would like to update or review the personal information we have on file for you, please email your request. To assist us in properly updating our files, please include your old and new personal information in your request.
